Transforming The Stone Preaching Through Resistance To Change:

Transforming the Stone Barbara K. Lundblad, 2001 Barbara Lundblad contends that to preach is to engage a specific community of Christians in a process of gradual growth and change While every parish has its unique attributes and needs there are some basic dynamics at work in moving a congregation through resistance and toward transformation Lundblad focuses our attention on these dynamics as she describes a program of preaching meant to re fashion a people The steps include building a foundation of grace re imaging Jesus naming and honoring the wounds of community members naming and removing obstacles to change describing alternative futures and daring hope The author addresses each of these themes separately in chapters that include a brief introduction two sample sermons and a conclusion This book for preachers provides a model for transformation preaching

Prophetic Preaching Leonora Tubbs Tisdale, 2010-08-09 Where have all the prophets gone And why do preachers seem to shy away from prophetic witness Astute preacher Leonora Tisdale considers these vexing questions while providing guidance and encouragement to pastors who want to recommit themselves to the task of prophetic witness With a keen sensitivity to pastoral contexts Tisdale s work is full of helpful suggestions and examples to help pastors structure and preach prophetic sermons considered by many to be one of the most difficult tasks pastors are called to undertake

A Handbook for Catholic Preaching Edward Foley, 2016 While admitting particular parameters and priorities for Roman Catholic preachers this volume was intentionally envisioned as a handbook for catholic preaching in the broadest and most universal sense of that term Cosponsored by the Catholic Academy of Liturgy the Catholic Association of Teachers of Homiletics and the Federation of Diocesan Liturgical Commissions it covers the role of the Scriptures in preaching the challenges of preaching in a digital age sermonizing in an interfaith context and the need for a liberative and prophetic word that cuts across denominations and even faith traditions Intended to aid those who teach or direct the preaching arts the design and writing style of this book are particularly calibrated to graduate students in ministerial studies Every article is a self contained overview of a particular historical period genre of preaching homiletic theory or contemporary issue This more encyclopedic approach devoid of footnotes yet supported by pertinent bibliography and an extensive index provides a sufficiently rich yet thoroughly accessible gateway to major facets of the preaching arts at this stage of the twenty first century General Editor Edward Foley Associate Editors Catherine Vincie Richard N Fragomeni Contributors Herbert Anderson John F Baldovin Alden Lee Bass Dianne Bergant Stephen Bevans Robert Bireley John Carr Anthony Collamati Michael E Connors Gueric DeBona Frank DeSiano William T Ditewig Con Foley Edward Foley Richard N Fragomeni Ann M Garrido Gregory Heille Lucy Lind Hogan Patrick R Lagges David J Lose Barbara K Lundblad Ricky Manalo Robert F Morneau Carolyn Muessig vanThanh Nguyen Mary Margaret Pazdan Patricia Parachini Jorge Presmanes Craig Alan Satterlee Catherine Vincie Richard Vosko James A Wallace Margaret Moers Wenig Alex Zenthoefer

Preaching to Korean Immigrants Rebecca Seungyoun Jeong, 2022-09-14 In terms of practical theology's critical reflection on marginalized people's wounds in a wider society this book investigates the question How to proclaim the good news in response to first generation Korean immigrants contextual suffering in the United States To answer the question the book starts with investigating Korean immigrant hearers contextual predicaments in a new land to point out emerging practical theological issues in relation to the practice of preaching In this book the primary subjects are first generation Korean immigrants especially those who have relatively low socio economic status and struggle with the purpose of their lives as immigrants particularly those whose material dreams have been shattered In order to proclaim the good news this book proposes a more appropriate immigrant theology for in the practice of preaching by reclaiming the priorities of God's future in our lives and confirming God's active identification with Korean immigrant congregations in the depths of their predicament. Such reconstructive work for immigrant theology arises in response to their existential hardships: marginality, ethnic discrimination, and relative powerlessness in life. While acknowledging both the possibilities and limits of the diverse forms of current Korean immigrant preaching, the book then offers a strategic proposal for a new homiletic theory, namely a psalmic theological homiletic. This proposed homiletic is deeply rooted in the theology of the Psalms and their rhetorical movement. This re-envisioned mode of eschatological and prophetic preaching in times of difficulty recovers ancient Israel's psalmic rhetorical tradition that aims toward faith. Its theological rhetorical strategy intends to both transform hearers' habitus of living in faith and enhance their hope-filled life through communal anticipation of God's coming future on the margins. Specifically, this proposed homiletic critically adopts key features from psalms of lament and their typical fourfold theological rhetorical movement: i.e., lament, retelling a story, confessional doxology, and obedient vow as now core elements of a revised Korean immigrant preaching practice.

Stand-Up Preaching Jacob D. Myers, 2022-10-06 Few vocations share more in common with preaching than stand-up comedy. Each profession demands attention to the speaker's bodily and facial gestures, tone and inflection, timing, and thoughtful engagement with contemporary contexts. Furthermore, both preaching and stand-up arise out of creative tension with homiletic or comedic traditions, respectively. Every time the preacher steps into the pulpit or the comedian steps onto the stage, they must measure their words and gestures against their audience's expectations and assumptions. They participate in a kind of dance that is at once choreographed and open to improvisation. It is these and similar commonalities between preaching and stand-up comedy that this book engages. Stand-Up Preaching does not aim to help preachers tell better jokes. The focus of this book is far more expansive. Given the recent popularity of comedy specials, preachers have greater access to a broad array of emerging comics who showcase fresh comedic styles and variations on comedic traditions. Coupled with the perennial Def Comedy Jams on HBO, preachers also have ready access to the work of classic comics who have exhibited great storytelling and stage presence. This book will offer readers tools to discern what is homiletically significant in historical and contemporary stand-up routines, equipping them with fresh ways to riff off of their respective preaching traditions and nuanced ways to engage issues of contemporary sociopolitical importance.

Preaching in Judaism and Christianity Alexander Deeg,Walter Homolka,Heinz-Günther Schöttler,2008 Main description It is a widespread idea that the roots of the Christian sermon can be found in the Jewish Derasha But the story of the interrelation of the two homiletical traditions Jewish and Christian from New Testament times to the present day is still untold This book offers the papers of the first international conference Bamberg Germany 6th to 8th March 2007 which brought together Jewish and Christian scholars to discuss Jewish and Christian homiletics in their historical development and

What's Right with Preaching Today? Mike Graves, André Resner, 2021-03-09 In 1928 when Riverside Church NYC pastor Harry Emerson Fosdick asked the question in Harpers Magazine What's the Matter with Preaching Today he did not know that one response to that question had just entered the world in Humboldt Tennessee Fred B Craddock revolutionized preaching theory and practice by flipping pulpit logic from deductive to inductive often called the preaching as storytelling revolution and in so doing brought renewed interest and impact to the practice of preaching effectively rescuing it from an often tedious and moralizing fate With Fred preaching was anything but boring Rather it was an exciting and enlightening ride that led to the renewal of faith To honor Craddock's legacy Mike Graves and Andre Resner invited ten leading voices in homiletics to identify something that is right about preaching today In addition they issued a call to a wide variety of people to contribute stories about Fred's impact on their lives and ministries Twenty seven remembrances of Fred are included here throughout the book If you appreciate effective and engaging preaching as either a preacher or listener the essays and remembrances here will speak to you and provide encouragement about preaching's present and future With contributions from Ronald J Allen Barbara K Lundblad Alyce McKenzie Debra J Mumford Luke Powery Andre Resner Richard Ward Dawn Ottoni Wilhelm Paul Scott Wilson

Embodied Hope Veronice Miles, 2021-12-29 Embodied Hope explores implications of an embodied theology of hope for preachers ability to nurture imaginative abundance and purposeful hope filled action in the most chaotic of times Embodied hope is grounded in a theological anthropology that foregrounds humanity's inherent identity as imago Dei and capacity to live as a nondistorting nondestructive reflection of God's presence in the earth The conceptual metaphor embodied Hope represents that which creates within each of us yearning for wholeness and well being the always speaking voice of God's Spirit assuring us of God's power faithfulness and redemptive presence and calling us toward loving just and restorative action in our world today Humans possess the capacity to imagine and live toward a qualitatively better state of existence for all creation but overwhelmed by the despairing realities of life we often feel despondent and drained of imaginative potential Preaching amplifies the voice of Hope bearing witness and inviting us to imagine the possibility and efficacy of a new reality grounded in Jesus's gospel proclamation Embodied Hope invites us to stand at the intersection of Hope and despair as we explore the contours and possibilities of living with Hope in times such as the present

Going against the grain Anna Norrby, 2019-05-28 This project studied if and how prophetic preaching would influence hearers way of understanding and expressing commitment to social change relationship to the church and relationship to faith in a large urban parish in the Church of Sweden where commitment to social change is highly valued The project established the crucial importance of focusing on the perspectives of hearers for the sermons to have an impact regardless of form prophetic or other The project claimed that in this context structural theological and psychological reasons make it difficult to establish prophetic preaching and suggested different methods to facilitate this kind of preaching
