The Oxford Handbook of Management Ideas Andrew Sturdy, Stefan Heusinkveld, Trish Reay, David Strang, 2019-03-28 Management ideas and their associated applications have become a prevalent feature of our working lives While their focus is familiar such as efficiency motivation and improvement they range from specific notions such as activity based costing to broad movements like corporate social responsibility This Handbook brings together some of the latest research from leading international scholars on how management ideas are produced promoted and adapted and their effects on business and working practices and society at large Rather than focusing on specific management ideas this volume explores their key socio political contexts and channels of dissemination and is organized around four core overlapping themes The first section sets out the research field in general in terms of both an overall system and of different perspectives and research methods The second section explores the role of different actors and channels of diffusion including the consumers and producers of management ideas and new media as well as traditional players in the management ideas field such as consultancies and business schools The third section focuses on specific features or dynamics of the management ideas system such as their adoption evolution institutionalisation and resurgence while in the final section critical and new perspectives on management ideas are examined highlighting specific socio political contexts and the possibility of alternative ideas and forms of critique With a broad range of perspectives represented this Handbook provides a comprehensive authoritative and enduring resource for those studying management innovation and organizational change as well as for those working in the management ideas industry

Handbook of Global Education Policy Karen Mundy, Andy Green, Bob Lingard, Antoni Verger, 2016-05-02 This innovative new handbook offers a comprehensive overview of the ways in which domestic education policy is framed and influenced by global institutions and actors Surveys current debates about the role of education in a global polity highlights key transnational policy actors accessibly introduces research methodologies and outlines global agendas for education reform Includes contributions from an international cast of established and emerging scholars at the forefront of the field thoughtfully edited and organized by a team of world renowned global education policy experts Each section features a thorough introduction designed to facilitate readers understanding of the subsequent material and highlight links to interdisciplinary global policy scholarship Written in an accessible and engaging style that will appeal to domestic and international policy practitioners social scientists and education scholars alike The Impact of Comparative Education Research on Institutional Theory David P.

Baker, Alexander W. Wiseman, 2006-07-17 Explores how educational research from a comparative perspective has been instrumental in broadening and testing hypotheses from institutional theory This book contains theoretical discussions of the impact that comparative research has had on institutional theory and comparative scholarship that tests basic institutional assumptions and trends Handbook of Research on Global Information Technology Management in the Digital Economy Raisinghani, Mahesh S., 2008-01-31 Includes the most important issues concepts trends and technologies in the field of global information technology management covering topics such as the technical platform for global IS applications information systems projects spanning cultures managing information technology in corporations and global information technology systems and socioeconomic development in developing countries The SAGE Handbook of Management Learning, Education and Development Steven J Armstrong, Cynthia V Fukami, 2009-05-07 The scholarship of management teaching and learning has established itself as a field in its own right and this benchmark handbook is the first to provide an account of the discipline Original chapters from leading international academics identify the key issues and map out where the discipline is going Each chapter provides a comprehensive and critical overview of the given topic area highlights current debates and reviews the emerging research agenda Chapters embrace the study of organizations as a whole the concepts of individual and collective learning the delivery of formal management education and the facilitation of management development Through consideration of these themes the Handbook analyzes promotes and critiques the contribution of management learning education and development to management understanding It will be an invaluable point of reference for all students and researchers interested in broadening their understanding of this exciting and dynamic new field Managing Nongovernmental Organizations Frederik Claeyé, 2014-03-26 The idea that international development aid needs to be better managed and coordinated gained currency in the early 1990s The increasing emphasis on management has resulted in the present vogue of managing for development results as one of the central tenets in the discourse on international aid But how appropriate are these ideas tools and techniques for non governmental development organizations NGOs and how much does geographic context matter Examining the current debate on aid effectiveness and the role of NGOs in contributing to it this book highlights the critical importance of understanding how the global and the local interact to increase aid efficacy and develop more culturally astute ways of managing NGOs With a focus on NGOs active in sub Saharan Africa as case studies author Frederik Claey demonstrates that NGOs are not mere passive recipients of management knowledge and practices emanating from the global governance structure of international aid but actively engage with these ideas and practices to translate and rework them through a local cultural lens This process results in the emergence of unique hybrid management systems that combine the pressure to become more business like with the mission to satisfy the demands of the communities they serve
