One Body, One Spirit Paul Pettit,B. Jason Epps,2024-08-06 According to the CDC one in four people in the United States lives with a disability yet many of our churches don t resemble this reality Attempts to welcome those with a disability are often implemented by well meaning but ill informed people The results can lead to those with disabilities feeling excluded and isolated from the family of God One Body One Spirit gives eyes to the able bodied to see the challenges experienced by those with disabilities Physical barriers to places of worship classrooms and small group settings leave people outside the gathered family of God Emotional barriers like fear and prejudice preclude them from using their spiritual gifts How can church communities on both the congregational and individual level address these issues B Jason Epps and Paul Pettit provide a road map by looking at a biblically informed solution They survey disability in the Old and New Testaments provide a vision for full integration outline how to conduct a disability audit and offer a five step plan for how to change the culture of your church

Moments of Grace Janae Hofer,2022-07-19 Praise for Moments of Grace The Bible tells us that the testing of our faith produces perseverance James 1 2 4 You won t find many people who demonstrate perseverance the way Janae Hofer does Her story is inspiring humbling and at times gut wrenching but it will give you insight into the mind and heart of an amazing young woman Jim Daly President Focus on the Family Unaware of her hidden turmoil many are impressed with Janae Hofer s unrelenting drive to open her own law practice despite needing assistance with every physical task because of cerebral palsy a disability hindering her every movement But her life is more than physical struggles It s also joy and sorrow laughter and pain victory and defeat In Moments of Grace Hofer narrates her story through her human lens calibrated to God s grace This reflective focus reveals glimpses of the golden thread in all of life s moments She tells how God provided her with a loving Christian family and carefully cultivated friendships Preserving her life despite suicide attempts God granted her strength to persevere when continual underestimation by colleagues and bosses built a steel coffin around her This memoir shares the contrast between Hofer s hopeless feelings at different moments and her grateful perspective as she now looks back Through her story she encourages you to use the recalibration questions to make your perspective on your own life one of gratitude and humility She prays this book will be one tool God uses to point you toward a deeper understanding of his unfailing grace in every moment past present and future

The Boy Who Loved Brittany Tylia L. Flores,2025-11-09 In the quiet often overlooked town of Oak haven nestled amidst rolling hills and whispering willows lives a young boy named Christian Holden Christian a bright and imaginative thirteen year old possesses a unique perspective on the world shaped by his experiences with cerebral palsy autism and ADHD His world is a tapestry woven with challenges and triumphs filled with the echoes of his own thoughts and the whispers of a longing for connection Christian s world is also a world of words He finds solace in the pages of romance novels their stories offering a window into worlds where love conquers all where hearts intertwine and where dreams take flight His favorite subject English becomes an avenue for expressing his thoughts his feelings his hopes and his dreams But there is a void in Christian s life a yearning for something more than the comforting embrace of fiction He longs for real connections for friendships that transcend the limitations of his physical world and for a love that sees him for who he truly is a boy with a beating heart a vibrant soul and a world of dreams waiting to be unveiled Happiness

Standing Still Is Not an Option Christa Boske, 2019-10-01 This book captures the experiences of children in U S public schools and how they utilize artmaking to disrupt injustices they face These first time authors who represent school children parents teachers and community leaders focus on artmaking for social change Their first tellings provide thought provoking insights regarding the impact of artmaking on their capacity to promote social justice oriented work in K 12 school communities As the U S continues to experience significant demographic shifts including increases of homeless children children identified with learning differences thousands of refugees and immigrants children living in poverty children in foster care and increasing numbers of Children of Color those who work in schools will need to know how to address disparities facing these underserved communities These U S demographic shifts and issues facing underserved populations provide opportunities for children teachers families and school leaders to deepen their understanding regarding their experiences within their communities and K 12 schools as well as ways to interrupt oppressive practices and policies they face every day through art as social action Authors call upon decision makers who serve children from disenfranchised populations to utilize artmaking to create equal access for children to explore social justice equity reflective practices and promote authentic social action and change through artmaking Authors reflect on this artmaking process as a catalyst for increasing consciousness creating imaginative possibilities and facilitating meaningful change in schools Authors urge readers to create equal access art spaces to build bridges among schools families and communities Together they contend that artmaking promotes courageous conversations and encourages the exploration of what it means to live this significant work Praise for Standing Still Is Not an Option

Standing Still Is Not an Option is a non traditional leadership text not just in words but in deeds It took courage for student first authors to write perform this text and it takes courage for us as educators to read it because our youth want us to speak up more and act differently To quote one student first author It was all new to me I never did anything like this before If I could go back in time I would tell the principals that they need to care about all of the kids not just the favorites If they could actually take the time and talk to me maybe you would actually care because you would get to know me I think they would learn I have a lot on my plate and they need to know about these things It would have really helped me if they would have listened to me talked to me and actually showed me they care If a principal would have shown me they cared I wouldn t be where I am today Isn t it past time that teachers and administrators learned to become their art and let their art remake them Ira Bogotch Professor Florida Atlantic University This book dares to explore the multi faceted nature of voice and its importance in narrating the experiences that have contoured the lives of persons who are so often conditioned socialized and placed in a voiceless space by educational institutions The use of artmaking to articulate hopes and fears in a non judgmental space that calls for a socially just education shifts the focus from traditional notions of narrative to the creative power of expression through art This work breaks new ground in pushing educational power brokers to come to grips with the multiple ways asymmetric power relations are propagated through traditional structures and how the power of creativity can respond to and disrupt these structures Michael Dantley Dean Professor Miami of Ohio University Christa Boske's edited volume provides an extraordinary service to educational leaders policy makers and those who care about the education stakeholders Through the chapters in this book Boske and her authors demonstrate the power of artistic storytelling and representation to the development and empowerment of young minds For those who care about the education of children and youth this is an essential read Michelle Young Professor University of Virginia former Executive Director of the University Council for Educational Administration UCEA Our Life Our Way William L. Rush, 2019-10-29 Our Life Our Way A Memoir of Active Faith Profound Love and Courageous Disability Rights explores an extraordinary love story grown out of engagement with both disability rights advocacy and Christian faith communities This important memoir contains thoughtful often entertaining and sometimes heart wrenching anecdotes of a couple's journey to create their profoundly intimate relationship and Christian marriage in a world not yet ready for them William Rush and Christine Robinson's timely meeting when the United States was close to granting civil rights to all Americans with disabilities sets the stages for their intensely human and difficult journey of breaking down many societal and systemic barriers to full participation in the larger society How will the couple deal with the local KKK grand dragon who is threatening William an outspoken person with a significant disability How will they respond to posturing state politicians using persons with disabilities as bargaining chips with potentially dire consequences How will they react to well meaning but not always well informed government officials pushing quick fixes Against such opposition can they create their own life supported by their local disability rights and Christian faith communities Girded by a local Christian congregation's willingness to engage with this nontraditional couple their faith is tested and grows stronger through much adversity Faith filled acts of mercy and grace and active and meaningful participation provide restoration on their arduous journey Deepening their relationship with God results in a desire for a Christian marriage Through a series of vignettes several deeply human themes are explored developing enduring relationships standing up for one's rights and advocating for one's needs and what it means to growing deeply in love with a faithful God while tribulations abound Through sheer grit they model for each of us how to create our own lives our own way

A Wild and Precious Life Lily Dunn, Zoe Gilbert, 2021-05-13 Featuring a foreword by Will Self We'll all experience recovery at some point in our lives whether from addiction, physical illness, mental health issues or loss. Many of us heal and we may discover ways to live with our changed selves to reclaim a life. We may find a new voice or unearth a voice that has been submerged. Vital recovery can mean community. This anthology, which grew out of a small creative writing class run by Lily Dunn at Hackney Recovery Service and was later broadened into a nationwide call for submissions by Dunn and her teaching partner Zoe Gilbert, represents a community of writers' new unheard voices alongside emerging and established authors. Theirs are stories from the dark back alleys, the deep crevices of the mind and from the wild, ecstatic heights of life before, during and after recovery. These are voices that urgently need to be heard in all their variety.
