Traveling The Two Lane A Memoir And Travelogue:

Traveling the Two-Lane Marilyn Berman,2015-03-14 Inching through rush hour traffic at the age of sixty three it dawned on Marilyn that she was also inching through life At that moment she decided to make the journey of her dreams a long vacation a year or more alone in a van She spent months preparing to escape her settled home and habits and in June of 2004 she got on the road Destination Alaska A lifetime of memories accompanied her As she drove explored and hiked she pondered her past Marilyn grew up gay at a time when homosexuality was not only illegal but also considered a mental illness For decades she led a dual existence trying to be normal while fantasizing about girls and women Driving the two lane back roads of North America Marilyn grappled with her ever present past and an uncertain future Traveling the Two Lane is the story of these two journeys a solo sojourn across North America and a lifetime navigating as a closeted and conflicted lesbian in a world with changing opinions about same sex love Witnessing the riches of nature and genius of humankind while recognizing the evils of both Marilyn confronts her past to better live her present Metamorphoses of Travel Writing Grzegorz Moroz,2010-02-19 This book reflects comments on and adds to a fast growing field of travel writing studies The twenty five papers in this volume rely on a variety of theoretical and methodological approaches and explore a diverse body of travel writing texts created over the last three hundred years in English Polish Hungarian and French The book is divided into three parts The first one includes papers which apply the findings of post structuralism generic and cultural criticism as well as narratology to explore theories canons and genres in travel writing drawing material not only from non fictional and fictional prose narratives but also from poetry and tragedy The second and third parts contain papers on a wide selection of travel writing texts both fictional and non fictional written in Anglophone as well as other literary traditions They are arranged chronologically the second part is devoted to texts written in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries while the third part focuses on those written in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Travel, Tourism, and Identity Gabriel R. Ricci,2017-09-29 Travel Tourism and Identity addresses the psychological and social adjustments that occur when people make contact with others outside their social cultural or linguistic groups Whether such contact is the result of tourism seeking exile or relocating abroad the volume s contributors demonstrate how one s identity cultural assumptions and worldview can be brought into question In some cases the traveller finds that bridging the social and cultural gap between himself and the new society is fairly easy In other cases the traveller discovers that reorienting himself requires absorbing a new cultural history and traditions The contributors argue that making these adjustments will surely enhance the traveller s or tourist s experience otherwise the traveller or tourist will be at risk of becoming a marginalized figure one disconnected from the society that surrounds him This latest volume in the Culture Civilization series features a collection of essays on travel and tourism The essays cover a range of topics from historical travels to modern social identities They discuss ancient travels contemporary travels in Europe Africa and sustainable eco tourism and the politics of tourism Essays also address experiences of Grenada s Spice Island identity and the effects of globalization and migrations on personal identity JOURNEY TO THE NARRATIVE SPACES OF MALAY LITERATURE (IIUM PRESS) Muhammad Haji Salleh,2024-07-01 In the field of Malay Studies the traditional artist is among the most mysterious of beings deeply buried under a tradition that was oral and anonymous He is more enigmatic now more than ever before as he is further alienated from us by the technological development the different modes of literary communication and not the least by the disappearance of the rural environment that created the artist all of these factors much influencing his mind There is no doubt that much as he felt rasa the world he also thought fikir about it about its universe the powers that governed his life the community its values the arts and what made them please and so on At the Crossroads Rebecca Jones,2019 Shortlisted for the SAUK Fage Oliver Prize 2020 Honorable Mention for the ALA First Book Award Scholarship 2021 A path breaking contribution to the critical literature on African travel writing The Balkans in Travel Writing Marija Knežević,2015-09-18 This book revisits images of the Balkans in twentieth century travel writing that vividly mirrors the turbulent changes that the region went through As such it provides a vital basis for research into the variety of possibilities or obstacles present on the region s path to accession when its unique heritage will have to be reconciled with a more European identity This volume explores the work of well known authors such as Rebecca West Paul Theroux Robert D Kaplan and also contributes to travel writing theory by addressing less known travellers who recorded their thoughts on the social dynamics of the region The corpus offers divergent and often contradictory views ranging from moral and political criticism to a delight in the rich heritage and the still undiscovered Balkan paths More importantly its generic potentials prove to overcome both the discourse of power and the discourse of apology Its narrative style also comprises striking variations from the objective and well researched approaches to quick impressionist sketches Being a multi generic form travel writing is observed from a multidisciplinary perspective encompassing fields such as literature linguistics history sociology anthropology ethnology political sciences and geography Literature of Travel and Exploration Jennifer Speake,2014-05-12 Containing more than 600 entries this valuable resource presents all aspects of travel writing There are entries on places and routes Afghanistan Black Sea Egypt Gobi Desert Hawaii Himalayas Italy Northwest Passage Samarkand Silk Route Timbuktu writers Isabella Bird Ibn Battuta Bruce Chatwin Gustave Flaubert Mary Kingsley Walter Ralegh Wilfrid Thesiger methods of transport and types of journey balloon camel grand tour hunting and big game expeditions pilgrimage space travel and exploration genres buccaneer narratives guidebooks New World chronicles postcards companies and societies East India Company Royal Geographical Society Society of Dilettanti and issues and themes censorship exile orientalism and tourism For a full list of entries and contributors a generous selection of sample entries and more visit the Literature of Travel and Exploration An Encyclopedia website The Global Politics of Contemporary Travel Writing Debbie Lisle,2006-11-02 To what extent do best selling travel books such as those by Paul Theroux Bill Bryson Bruce Chatwin
