Trayvon Benjamin Martin Autopsy Report:

Suspicion Nation Lisa Bloom, 2014-02-25 Many thought the election of our first African American president put an end to the conversation about race in this country and that America had moved into a post racial era of equality and opportunity Then on the night of February 26 2012 a black seventeen year old boy walking to a friend s home carrying only his cell phone candy and a fruit drink was shot and killed by a neighborhood watch coordinator And in July 2013 the trial of Zimmerman for murder captivated the public as did his eventual acquittal In her provocative and landmark book Suspicion Nation Lisa Bloom who covered the trial from gavel to gavel posits that none of this was a surprise Our laws culture and blind spots created the conditions that led to Trayvon Martin s death and made George Zimmerman s acquittal by far the most likely outcome America today holds an unhealthy preoccupation with firearms that has led to the expansion of gun rights to surreal extremes America now has not only the highest per capita gun ownership rate in the world almost one gun per American but the highest rate of gun deaths Despite the strides America has made fighting a bloody Civil War to end slavery eradicating Jim Crow laws teaching tolerance and electing an African American president racial inequality persists throughout our country in employment housing education the media and most institutions And perhaps most destructively of all racial biases run deep in every level of our criminal justice system Suspicion Nation captures a court system and a country conflicted and divided over issues of race violence and gun legislation
