"Don't Be So Gay!" Donn Short, 2013-03-04 Once viewed as an inevitable if unpleasant part of growing up bullying is now recognized as a serious safety issue particularly in light of recent teen suicides linked with homophobia in schools In Don't Be So Gay: Queers Bullying and Making Schools Safe Donn Short considers the effectiveness of anti harassment policies and safe school legislation After spending several months interviewing queer youth and their allies in the Toronto area Short concludes that current legislation and its approach to school safety and homophobia has generally been more responsive than proactive He suggests that while effective legislation is vital to establishing a safe space for queer students other influences including religion family beliefs and peer pressure may be more powerful Drawing on students own experiences and exploring how their understandings and definitions of safety might be translated into policy reform this book offers a fresh perspective on a hotly debated issue

Professional Development for Leaders and Managers of Self-Governing Schools David Gamage, 2006-08-05 Current Context Currently self governing schools SGS or school based site based management SBM or local management of schools LMS identifies the individual school as the primary unit of improvement It relies on the redistribution of decision making authority to stimulate and sustain improvements in a school For this purpose varying degrees of formal authority to make decisions in the domains of school's mission goals priorities and school policies relating to financial material and human resources are not simply delegated but transferred by legislation to a representative governing body called the school council or board Accordingly it is the position of the principal or the head teacher previously at the apex of the hierarchical structure of the school which undergoes the most radical reform Under the new concept authority is shifted to the corporate body that is to the council or board while the principal becomes an ex officio member of that body and the chief executive officer CEO of the school Traditionally and legally the principal or the head teacher was vested with the full authority for the total management of the school But in terms of SGS or SBM the principal becomes a partner with the representatives of other relevant stakeholders in a democratic structure When the bureaucratic model of a school gets modified with the school governing body occupying the apex of the school hierarchy it becomes the key power centre with legal authority

Leadership for Inclusion, 2010-01-01 What task might a principal undertake that would be more critical to teachers and students than to engage in leadership for inclusion All education stakeholders have an inescapable vested interest in enabling principals in their mandate to be better informed about inclusion and to provide leadership based on such insights In this manner principals can directly support teachers who enact inclusion with students on a daily basis Whilst our aspirations for such professional growth and practice in principals are laudable exactly what this growth and practice might represent is mostly nebulous therefore good leadership for inclusion is more likely to occur by happenstance than by meticulous design That is no longer the case This important and timely collection of international writings examines just what comprises the critical issues within inclusion and provides principals with a series of practical guides to direct their practice This book takes leadership for inclusion out of the purely theoretical realm and firmly plants it in the professional lives and realities of principals and teachers in schools The fundamental tenets and suggestions provided here have international application and should be essential readings for all principals and others in similar positions who are concerned about the welfare of teachers and students involved in inclusive education
